

Fernando Chau

PhD in Economics from Catholic University of Louvain, Louvain-la-Neuve, Belgium, researched in diverse economic issues and has experience in international institutions on economic policy recommendations and structural reforms. Currently, he is working in integrating macroeconomic scenarios with labour market issues, associated with future needs of qualification.